ACLS Precourse Instructions (Required!)

This document provides instructions on how to prepare for your ACLS course, and how to access the REQUIRED PRECOURSE TEST THAT MUST BE COMPLETED PRIOR TO CLASS.

Address for Class:

CPR Cincinnati
4225 Malsbary Road
Suite 204
Blue Ash, Ohio 45242

Arrive on Time:

Please plan to arrive on time because it will be difficult for late students to catch up once we start. Students are expected to attend and participate in the entire course. If you arrive later than 15 minutes after class start time you will be asked to reschedule.

How to Prepare:

- Review and understand the information in your ACLS Provider Manual. Please review all of the sections throughout the manual.
- Pay particular attention to the following sections below listed in the table of contents:
  - Systematic Approach: BLS Assessment, Primary and Secondary Assessments
  - Acute Coronary Syndromes
  - Acute Stroke
  - Bradycardia
  - Tachycardia: Stable and Unstable
  - Respiratory Arrest
  - Cardiac Arrest: VF/pVT
  - Cardiac Arrest: PEA and Asystole
  - Post-Cardiac Arrest Care
- Throughout the ACLS provider manual there are treatment algorithms. There is one for each specific condition/emergency. Become familiar with all the treatment algorithms throughout the ACLS Provider Manual.
- You will be expected to recognize cardiac rhythms and understand ACLS pharmacology. These topics are not taught in this course.

You Must:

1. Complete and Print your required Precourse Self-Assessment.
2. Score a 70% or higher on your Precourse Self-Assessment in order to attend class.

How to Create an Account with the AHA, Access, and Complete Your Required Precourse Self-Assessment

Step #1

Create an eLearning account with the AHA. Go to <https://elearning.heart.org>

If you already have an AHA account then login. If you DO NOT have an AHA account, click on the top right where it says, "Sign up". Then "Create an Account" as a New User, and Sign In.

*SAVE YOUR ACCOUNT LOGIN INFORMATION!

The screenshot shows the homepage of the American Heart Association eLearning platform. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'Courses', 'About eLearning', 'Support', 'Get Involved', 'Sign in | Sign up', and language selection ('EN'). The main content area features a large image of a woman with glasses working on a laptop. Overlaid on this image is a white box containing the text: 'American Heart Association' and 'Welcome to eLearning'. Below this, a subtext reads: 'Convenient and flexible. Learn at your own pace and on your own schedule, anywhere and anytime an internet connection is available.'

Step #2

After you have logged in, this is what should appear on the screen. This will bring up all the courses offered in eLearning. Scroll Down and locate the course that says “ACLS Precourse Assessment” and hit LAUNCH THIS COURSE. (*NOTE: Do Not select “ACLS Precourse Assessment and Precourse Work”)

IMPORTANT! If you are being prompted to watch videos you are in the WRONG pre-course assessment course.

(Course code is KJ-1921)

The screenshot shows the American Heart Association eLearning website. At the top, there is a logo for "American Heart Association eLearning" with a red heart icon. To the right are links for "EC", "EN", and "Get Involved". Below the header, there are navigation links for "Courses", "About eLearning", "Support", and "Home / Courses". The main content area is titled "Course Catalog". On the left, there is a "Filter" sidebar with checkboxes for various course categories. The main area displays a grid of course cards. One card is highlighted with a yellow border: "2020 ACLS Precourse Self-Assessment" (Free course, Not Started). Other cards include "2020 ACLS Precourse Self-Assessment and Precourse Work" (Not Started), "2020 PALS Precourse Self-Assessment" (Free course), and "2025 ACLS Instructor Update" (Not Started).

Step #3

After you launch the course, this is the screen you will see next. Click START to begin the assessment. Please note, you can save and return to complete the pre-course assessment at any time. You do NOT have to complete this in one session. You must save your login information to access your course again.

The screenshot shows the American Heart Association eLearning website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Courses, About eLearning, Support, and Get Involved. The main content area is titled "ACLS Precourse Self-Assessment". It features a thumbnail of a laptop displaying the "ACLS" logo. Below the thumbnail, there is a note about reading the course description and an expiration date of November 12th 2027. A descriptive text explains the tool's purpose: "The Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS) Precourse Self-Assessment is an online tool that evaluates a student's knowledge before the course to determine their proficiency and identify any need for additional review and practice in 3 sections: rhythm recognition, pharmacology, and practical application." A "Course Description" section welcomes users to the "ACLS Precourse Self-Assessment". It includes a list of things to know before taking the course, such as completing the assessment and achieving a 70% score. A "Resources" sidebar on the right lists links to "Intraosseous Access", "Coping with Death", "ACLS Supplementary Materi...", and "ACLS Precourse Preparatio...". At the bottom, a note says "Select the START button below to begin."
